A Dialogue Between two Friends Who Meet After 10 Years

Kamlesh: Hello Sarika! What a pleasant surprise!

Sarika: Hi Kamlesh! I am very happy to see you. How are you?

Kamlesh: I am fine, Sarika. Thank you. And how are you?

Sarika: I am also fine. Thank you. What are you doing presently?

Kamlesh: Presently, I am working as a Senior Manager in Divya Industries at Valsad District of Gujarat.

Sarika: Superb! You have made a wonderful progress in your life. I am proud of you.

Kamlesh: Thank you. By the way what is your profession?

Sarika: I am a professor.

Kamlesh: Oh! It is a noble profession. Where and how long have you been working as a professor?

Sarika: I have been working as an Assistant Professor in English at M. S. University Baroda since 2016.

Kamlesh: You are so lucky to have such a prestigious job. It is rewarding too.

Sarika: Thank you very much. I have to attend an important meeting. I will have to hurry up. I beg your leave, now.

Kamlesh: Ok! Nice meeting you. Please stay in touch. Bye...

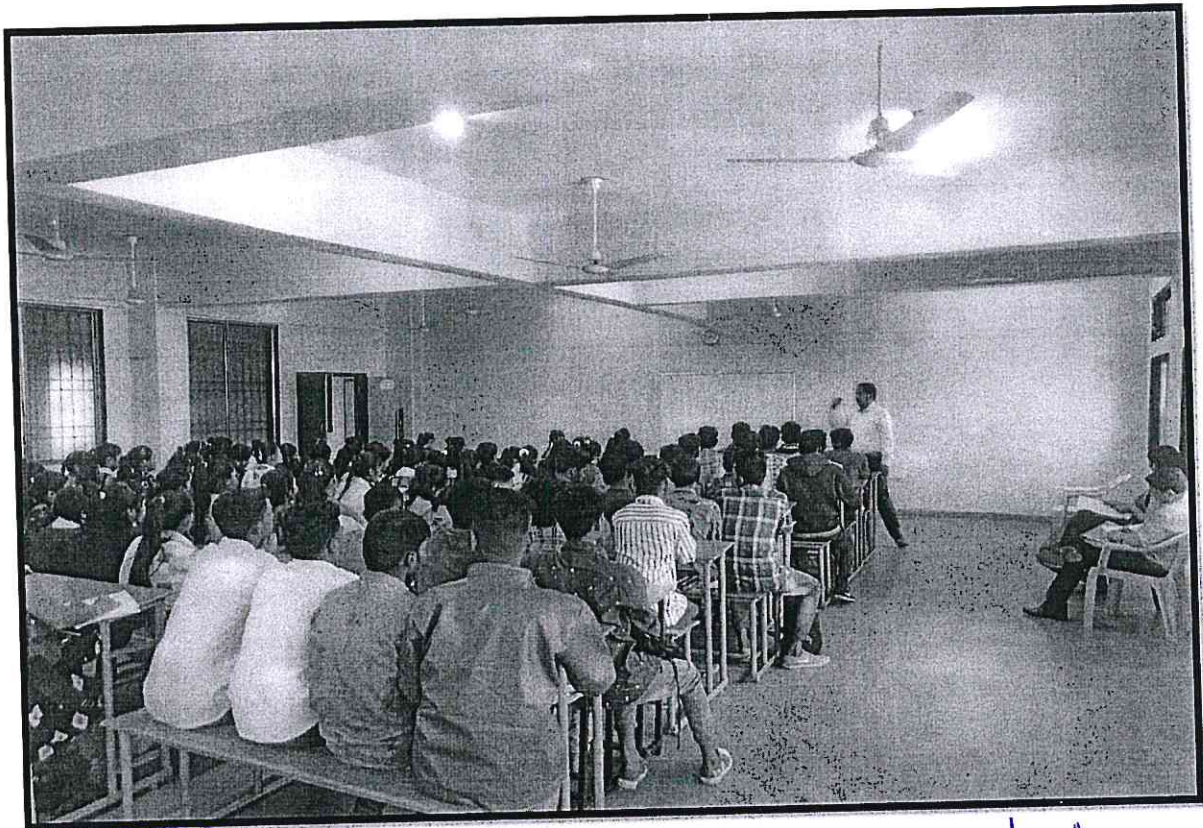

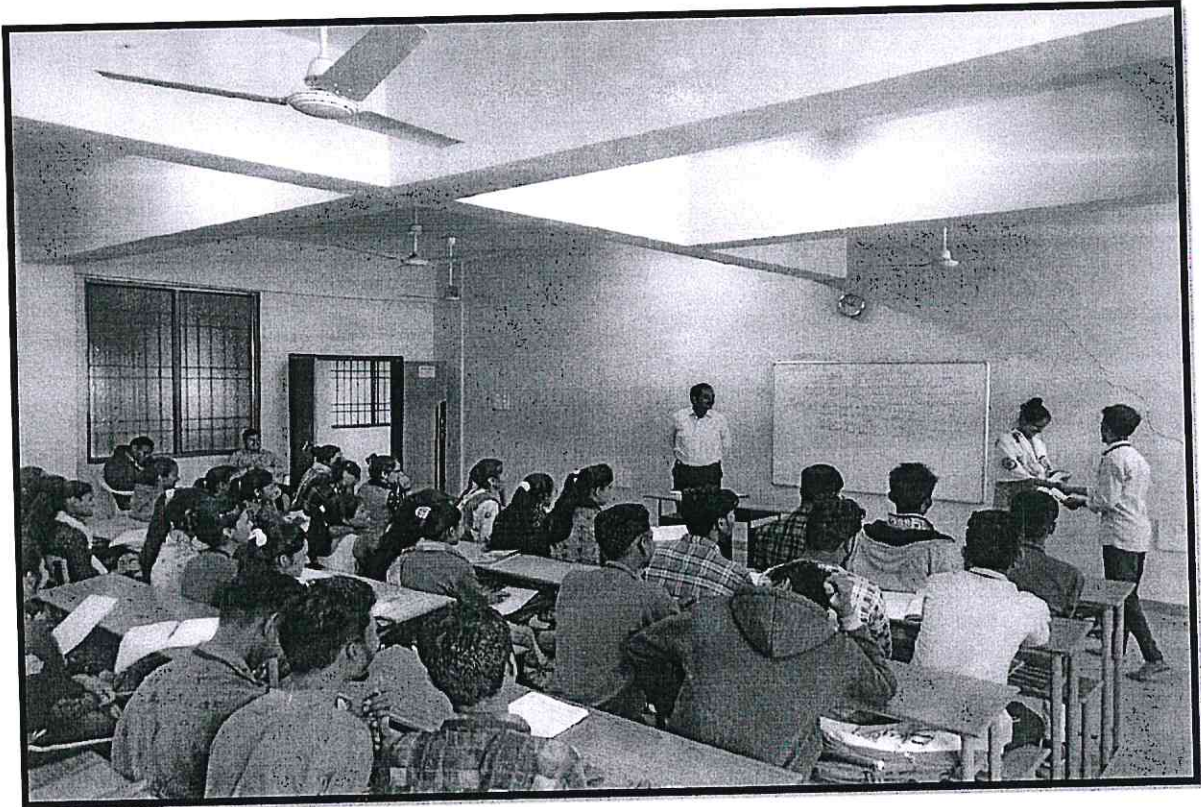

Sarika: Bye...

A Dialogue between a Student and a Professor

- x -

Student: Good Morning, Sir.

Professor: Good Morning. Please sit down.

Student: Thank you, Sir.

Professor: Amit, you have not been attending your classes regularly for a week. Is there any problem?

Student: Nothing as such. My sister is going to be married on 4th of this month. So we are busy arranging for her wedding ceremony. I will be punctual as usual from the next week, Sir.

Professor: It's great! But you should have at least informed me regarding your absence. Did you take the principal's permission?

Student: Yes, Sir. The principal Sir sanctioned me leave for the days I absented myself from the college. I was about to inform you. In fact, I was in a hurry that day. I am sorry, Sir.

Professor: All right. Get your leave sanctioned also for the days you are likely to remain absent.

Student: Yes, Sir. Here is the invitation card for you. I invite you cordially on my sister's wedding ceremony to bless the bride and the bridegroom and also to grace the Job Interview for the post of an English Teacher in a Higher Secondary School.

Interviewee: May I come in, please?

All Interviewers: Please come in and sit down, please.

Interviewee: Thank you, Sir.

Ist Interviewer: Mr. Viras Malhotra, you are a gold medalist both in B.A. & M.A. Examinations. Would you please let us know the secret of your brilliant academic career?

Interviewee: Yes, Sir. I did both my B.A. & M.A. from Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat. My father is a professor. He inspired me a lot. I had been a very studious student. I did study English Literature thoroughly. I consulted my teachers regularly. They always motivated me to utilize my potential. Besides, I prepared well for the examinations.

IInd Interviewer: Would you like to inspire your students, if selected?

Interviewee: Yes, of course, Sir.

1st Interviewer: What innovative activities will you incorporate?

Interviewee: Sir, I will first of all make my classroom teaching both interesting and informative. I will create a friendly environment in and outside the classroom. I will promote the students to participate in the discussions, clear their doubts and make utmost use of technology.

IInd Interviewer: What special efforts will you make to improve communicative English of your students?

Interviewee: Sir, I will arrange for Seminars, Conferences and Workshops, besides arranging for spoken English classes. I will motivate my students to listen to English news, read newspapers in English.

1st Interviewer: How will you contribute to teaching - learning activity?

Interviewee: Sir, I will ensure that each student attends the class regularly, does her/his lessons everyday, actively takes part in the teaching - learning process, presents Seminar and submits her/his assignment. Besides, I will also conduct weekly tests.

1st Interviewer: Excellent! we will let you know in a couple of days.

Interviewee: Thank you, Sir.
