Indigenous Culture Since and Beyond: Celebration of World Indigenous Peoples' Day at Government Arts College, Kaparada

The World Indigenous Peoples' Day was celebrated at Government Arts College, Kaparada with gaiety and enthusiasm. The celebration included activities like "Seminar on Indigenous Culture", "Tribal Songs" and a "Grand Dance Procession". In his inaugural address the Principal, Dr. D. N. Dewari highlighted the significance, glory and relevance of indigenous culture for the very sustenance of mankind. He stressed the need to safeguard indigenous culture against the devouring materialistic civilization of the 21st Century. He quoted the sages like Swami Vivekananda and Mahatma Gandhi to demonstrate how and to what extent they believed that the indigenous ambience alone did bear a redemptive power to exonerate modern man and to redefine human values by way of insuring a symbiosis with nature.

Mr. Manojbhai Patel, Assistant Professor in Gujarati delivered a lecture on "The Dialects of South Gujarat: A General Introduction". He explained the basic difference between a language and a dialect, besides demonstrating how a word pronounced in standard Gujarati is pronounced variously in Kunkana, Dhodia and Chaudhary dialects. Besides these, he also sang a mellifluous song in Dhodia dialect.

Mr. Dipakbhai Patel, Assistant Professor in History delivered a lecture on "Constitutional Provisions 5th & 6th Schedules PESA (Panchayats Extensions to Scheduled Areas), enumerating the rights of the indigenous people and the various laws constituted to safeguard the indigenous people against their exploitation. Mr. Hemant Kharadi, Assistant Professor in English broadly discussed the Socio-Economic problems of the indigenous people. Dr. Meghna Dhame elaborated social status of the indigenous women and pointed out how like many other indigenous communities, the matriarchic Nayar community of Kerala enjoys a reverential position in the family and society as well. Miss Rashmitaben Rathod presented a lecture on "Tribal Social Reformers with a Special Reference to Virsha Munda and Jaypal Singh Munda". Mr. Laljibhai Ganvit delivered a lecture on "Indigenous Culture" with special reference to the festivals, life-style, costumes, and food habits of indigenous people.

Besides Professors, the students also contributed to the seminar. Chaudhary Kamlesh R (Sem-5) spoke on "The Life-Style of the Tribals". Pavar Ulka C (Sem-1) spoke on Warli Painting. Bhusara Shivani G (Sem-01) gave a detailed account of the folk-singer Diwaliben Bhil. Mahala Mehul P. (Sem-03) discussed the local problems of the tribals. His entire presentation in Kokani dialect bewitched the audience and exemplified the real purport of the occasion.

Mr. Dilipkumar O. Sharma, Visiting Faculty in English, Shri C.H. Bhil Government Arts & Commerce College, Naswadi in his brief motivational address called upon the students to enhance their English conversational and employability skills, besides preserving and promulgating their indigenous culture.

Prof. Laljibhai Garvit, Visiting Faculty in Sociology, quite expediently and dexterously handled the entire programme and Mr. Vimalbhai Jadav, Sr. Clerk extended the vote of thanks.
